STATE DEPARTMENTS RUN WITHOUT FUNDS

Salem, Ore., Jan. 1.—Although all the state departments, save those enjoying continuing appropriations, are now without funds and the emergency law prohibits the incurring of liabilities, the affairs of the state will continue just the same and no hardships are anticipated. Heretofore the state employees after appropriations were exhausted before the legislative session, have always had to wait until appropriations were made and their position is the same as in the past years. Technically, under the law the state cannot incur liabilities for supplies, but it is believed that any attempt will be made to enforce this law. If any hardships should result the Legislature could immediately come to the rescue.

"I'LL SHOW 'EM, DURN 'EM."

I've stopped the paper, yes I have I didn't like to do it, But the editor he got too smart, And I allowed he'll rue it. I am a man who pays his debts, And will not be insulted, So when the editor gets smart I want to be consulted. I took his paper 'leven years, And helped him all I could, sir But when it comes to dunnin' me I didn't think he would, sir. But when he did, and you can bet It made me hot as thunder; I says, "I'll stop that sheet, I will, If the doggone thing goes under." I hunted up the editor, And for his cunnin' caper I paid him 'leven years and quit! Yes sir, I stopped the paper.

HONESTY IS OUR POLICY.

ON THE WINGS OF THE MORNING

The Old Year is dying—the New year is coming—coming fast upon us. Will it find you a better, richer man or woman than last year? Have you laid by something out of what you have made during this year. If not, why not NOW—today open a Bank Account at the Columbia County Bank? Make a resolution that the close of next year will see you better off than the close of this year.
